Drawings

1. In addition to Replacement Sheets containing the corrected drawing figure(s), applicant is required to submit a marked-up copy of each Replacement Sheet including annotations indicating the changes made to the previous version. The marked-up copy must be clearly labeled as "Annotated Sheets" and must be presented in the amendment or remarks section that explains the change(s) to the drawings. See 37 CFR 1.121(d)(1). Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 3, 4, and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 3, it is not clear what is the difference between a tooth prosthesis and a tooth selected from the group of the previous claim. The limitation of claim 4 is inconsistent with the claimed subject matter of the coping. In claim 13, it is not clear that the coping comprises the plastic material of claim 12.

Claim Objections

4. Claims 7 and 21 are objected to because of the following informalities: recitation of "the tooth preparation" in claim 7 lacks sufficient antecedent basis and claim 21 has an improper preamble. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-4, 6, 7, 12-19, and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rassoli et al. (5,662,473). Rassoli et al. disclose a dental prosthetic assembly comprising a prosthetic dental abutment coping 11 and a dental abutment 10, the coping being resemblant of an incisor, the coping is shown not mounted (figure 9). It is noted that in Rassoli et al. the coping is called abutment pattern and the abutment is called base. The coping can be adapted to be rotatably mounted with 360 degrees of freedom. The coping is resemblant of a prosthesis and preprepared tooth. The coping is adapted to form a snap fit with the abutment. The coping comprises plastic of a polycarbonate resin (column 4 line 44). The assembly comprises stable retaining joints of the abutment with the annular lip 28 and the coping with annular recess. The coping comprising a transgingival margin.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rassoli et al. Rassoli et al. disclose a coping that shows the limitations as described above; however, they do not show the abutment provided with the annular recess and the coping with the annular lip. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have the abutment provided with the annular recess and the coping with the annular lip as a mere reversal of the parts would involve only routine skill in the art

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to the rejected claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
